

Huddles

Book of Mark, Week #2

Learning to love and follow Jesus—together—by His strength, in every day life.

What are huddles at Foundations?

- Groups of 3-8 people (or 3-4 couples) that meet for one hour per week at a time and location of your choosing. Larger groups should plan for 75 minutes.
- Huddles last for 8 weeks. At the end of each 8-week session, you can keep your group, add to your group or even change groups & topics.
- While gathering on Sunday is vital to spiritual growth, so is connecting with others to encourage one another, discussing what it means to follow Jesus and praying for one another. These practices are detailed in our RHYTHMS course (which is not necessary to take part in huddles, but highly recommended).

Our Mission is to bring the extraordinary life-changing message of Jesus Christ to a lost and broken world.

- Huddles are one way we prepare to do this very thing, and we can't do that unless our lives are being transformed by Him.
- Hence, the goal of every session is that you will grow more like Jesus in some small way.
- In order to do this, we will focus on God's Word, encourage one another and commit to praying for one another.
- Each week, there are individual rhythms we encourage that will help you "love and follow Jesus."
- Similarly, there are corporate rhythms that help us in our spiritual formation.
- Consistent practice of these rhythms is part of the holistic development of disciples, and this booklet is designed to touch on that development.
- This holistic framework will give structure to your meeting time.

The individual rhythms overview (for those that haven't taken the Rhythms course):

Prayer: Talking to God and listening to Him via His Word, His Spirit-Filled people and His creation. If you don't know how to pray, a good start is the Lord's Prayer in Matthew 5.

Abide in the Word: Reading the Bible, prayerfully, asking God to show you what He wants for you. A good practice is to read with a pen & journal to write your thoughts as He leads them.

Silence: choosing to avoid speaking in order to listen to what He might want to say to us. Another Solitude: avoidance of interaction with others in order to be alone with Him. Silence enhances this.

Reflection (especially effective at the end of the day, maybe before sleep): Take some time in stillness to experience His presence, tell God things you're thankful for, make note of where you experienced Him today--or where you didn't—and note instances of loving your “neighbor” well—or failure to do so. Ask God for what He may want for you in the day tomorrow.

Other rhythms that will likely be practiced less frequently: Fasting (food; if there's an area you are seeking specific guidance); giving joyfully (financially as an act of worship) and rest (setting aside time to enjoy your life and choosing to refrain from work)

The corporate rhythms overview (for those that haven't taken the Rhythms course):

Worship gathering: A time for our family to be together to participate corporately in the rhythms of worship together.

Participation in community: A time to engage in huddle, as well as other forms of being together as a church family (such as concerts, conferences/classes, events, etc.)

Lord's Supper: A chance for our family to reflect on the person and work of Jesus and look forward in hope to His coming again in a symbol of eternal unity.

Baptism: A one-time action of a declaration of faith in Christ. It is our hope that everyone be baptized, as well as choosing to enjoy the celebration of others who choose to do so.

Using your gift to serve the Body: We have been given a gift to help the body of Christ come to maturity in faith, and we benefit by your presence.

Having a ministry of love for neighbor: We choose to exemplify the abundant life in order to fulfill our mission of bringing the extraordinary life of Jesus Christ to a lost and broken world.

Prayer, Day 1

- If you are comfortable praying as a conversation with God, find some focused time to do so.
- Find a place where you can have silence and solitude and talk to God and be attentive to how He leads your thoughts and emotions.
- You may find it helpful to write down what you talked with God about and/or how He answered in a journal.

- If you are new to prayer, or struggle with focus, you may want to pray aloud the following prayer from St. Patrick:

- I arise today
Through the strength of heaven;
Light of the sun,
Splendor of fire,
Speed of lightning,
Swiftness of the wind,
Depth of the sea,
Stability of the earth,
Firmness of the rock.

- I arise today
Through God's strength to pilot me;
God's might to uphold me,
God's wisdom to guide me,
God's eye to look before me,
God's ear to hear me,
God's word to speak for me,
God's hand to guard me,
God's way to lie before me,
God's shield to protect me,
God's hosts to save me
Afar and anear,
Alone or in a multitude.

Christ shield me today
Against wounding
Christ with me, Christ before me, Christ
behind me,
Christ in me, Christ beneath me, Christ
above me,
Christ on my right, Christ on my left,
Christ when I lie down, Christ when I sit down,
Christ in the heart of everyone who thinks of me,
Christ in the mouth of everyone who speaks
of me,
Christ in the eye that sees me,
Christ in the ear that hears me.
I arise today
Through the mighty strength
Of the Lord of creation.

Time in the Word, Day 1, Mark 3: 1-12

- Background & Insights on the Reading:
- We don't know for certain who the opposition group is in this section, but we know that Jesus' ministry has now come to the Jewish leadership and some who were in league with the Roman governor. Obviously their perception of him has caused them to investigate his life & teachings.
- Questions for Reflection:
- What do you think of verse 5 and the reason they seemingly devalued the miracle?
- Do we deal with the same issues in verse 5? What does that "look" like in our everyday lives?
- Notice that Jesus withdrew from the crowds a bit. How might we do this in our day to day lives?

Prayer, Day 2

- If you are comfortable praying as a conversation with God, find some focused time to do so.
- Find a place where you can have silence and solitude and talk to God and be attentive to how He leads your thoughts and emotions.
- You may find it helpful to write down what you talked with God about and/or how He answered in a journal.

- If you are new to prayer, or struggle with focus, you may want to pray using the Lord's Prayer as an outline for your own words to express...

Tell God how thankful you are for the privilege of calling the King of Kings "our Father," & that He listens and hears.

God is worthy of honor and worship

We should acknowledge that things on earth are not what they are supposed to be, and that we should ask God to be aware of His presence and strive to see what He wants this world to be. We should let others see His Kingdom by how we live.

We should be thankful that He provides our basic needs.

We should pray for forgiveness and forgive others

We should name our weaknesses and our temptations, and for the Spirit to strengthen us. We should close with praise.

Time in the Word, Day 2, Mark 3: 13-30

- Background & Insights on the Reading:
- Notice the story again moving along quickly. We see Jesus ministry increasing, and then we see the 12 disciples are named and a bit about some of their personalities.
- This early phase of Jesus' ministry is marked by healing & teaching, but also by empowering his disciples.
- Questions for Reflection:
- Look at verse 20. What might your reaction to Jesus have been if you'd been an outside observer during this time in history?
- What do you think of Jesus' logic in talking about why he obviously can't be demon possessed?

Prayer, Day 3

- If you are comfortable praying as a conversation with God, find some focused time to do so.
- Find a place where you can have silence and solitude and talk to God and be attentive to how He leads your thoughts and emotions.
- You may find it helpful to write down what you talked with God about and/or how He answered in a journal.
- If you are new to prayer, or struggle with focus, you may want to pray using the ACTS method as an outline for your own words to express...
- Adoration (a time of worship): don't be afraid of "artistic expressions" here, or to use Psalms or hymns or other forms of praise.
- Confession: We all fall short and miss the mark. Confession of sin helps us our relationship to God.
- Thanksgiving: Simply tell God what you're thankful for.
- Supplication: Asking God for needs of the world, our country & leaders, our church, and anything and everything else. God wants to hear from you.

Time in the Word, Day 3, Mark 3: 31-35

- Background & Insights on the Reading:
- Notice that Jesus had siblings! Sometimes we forget that.
- Notice that in this chapter there are crowds that are following Him a great deal. There seems to be much commotion surrounding him early in his ministry.
- Question for Reflection:
- Jesus is implying that following God's will is more important than family. If you were to adopt this mindset, what practical steps might you take, while still ensuring that you follow through with other sections of the Bible that tell you to love/respect your spouse and raise your children in His instruction

Prayer, Day 4

- If you are comfortable praying as a conversation with God, find some focused time to do so.
- Find a place where you can have silence and solitude and talk to God and be attentive to how He leads your thoughts and emotions.
- You may find it helpful to write down what you talked with God about and/or how He answered in a journal.
- If you are new to prayer, or struggle with focus, you may want to pray using the breath method to pray:
- Simply take a Psalm and breathe in as you read the first line, and then exhale on the second.
- Take deep, long, slow breaths.

You can also do this with just one verse of Scripture, and almost every Psalm can be done this way. Try to focus on the ones that focus on God and/or resonate with where you are at the moment.

Time in the Word, Day 4, Mark 4: 1-12

- Background & Insights on the Reading:
- This is the first of 3 extended teaching sessions in Mark. Obviously the writer wants to detail the information that Christ was giving to the crowds around the Sea of Galilee as well as the little group of 12 that follow Him.
- Parables are simply allegories to illustrate a point & often used normal, everyday events that people can relate to.
- Questions for Reflection:
- Imagine yourself in the crowd and that you've never heard of this parable before. What do you think might go through your mind once Jesus finished the story?
- What do you make of Jesus reason for telling the crowd parables in vv. 11 & 12?
- Hint: V. 12 is one of the hardest in Mark to understand. In short, v. 11 means that the mystery of the Kingdom is understood by people of faith, but those who don't have faith it becomes hard to "get." Only by turning to faith can you understand the mystery.

Prayer, Day 5

- If you are comfortable praying as a conversation with God, find some focused time to do so.
- Find a place where you can have silence and solitude and talk to God and be attentive to how He leads your thoughts and emotions.
- You may find it helpful to write down what you talked with God about and/or how He answered in a journal.
- If you are new to prayer, or struggle with focus, you may want to simply pray using a Psalm...they are really great prayers! Find one that you resonate with, and pray it aloud:
- Simply take a Psalm, and this week you might want to go with Psalm 130
- Pray aloud, even if in a whisper, slowly and with concentration on the words.
- Try to be attentive to the thoughts that come to mind and discern if those may be something God is trying to tell you.

Time in the Word, Day 5, Mark 4: 13-34

- Background & Insights on the Reading:
- Jesus is still teaching in parables (keep in mind the “why” you learned yesterday). In this section, we get an explanation of the parable He gave them about the seed/soils, and then we get three more teachings.
- Questions for Reflection:
- Jesus explains the Parable of the Sower here. Which one of the soils best describes where you are with faith these days?
- The next three parables will help you further think through your walk with Jesus at the moment: How might others looking at your life see your “light?” How are you making choices to grow spiritually? How are you investing in the Kingdom with your “time, talent & treasure?”

Prayer, Day 6: A Time for Reflection

Traditional time of Examen	A Few Thoughts on This Method
This is a version of the five-step Daily Examen that St. Ignatius practiced. <ol style="list-style-type: none">1. Become aware of God’s presence.2. Review the day with gratitude.3. Pay attention to your emotions.4. Choose one feature of the day and pray from it.5. Look toward tomorrow.	<ol style="list-style-type: none">1. Breathe & slow down. Ask God to make you aware of His presence and to bring to mind moments of your day to focus on.2. Walk through your day and give thanks for areas where you saw God “show up” and for His blessings.3. The things you feel when you review often highlight areas where God wants you to focus and what he wants to teach you. Often this results in confession when you see your emotions out of line with walking in the Spirit.4. Ask God to show you moments where you loved others well (or, conversely, He may bring to mind an area you didn’t). Give thanks or ask forgiveness as warranted.5. Think through your day tomorrow and ask God what He may be calling you to do or be in the upcoming day.

Time in the Word, Day 6, Mark 4: 35-41

- Background & Insights on the Reading:
 - Now we are going to see a close look at the authority of Jesus that will highlight what gives Him the platform to be able to teach these truths.
 - You might remember the stories of the prophet Jonah and spending three days in the belly of a great fish. There are a number of striking comparisons and contrasts between these two stories of being in a storm on a boat at sea. Try to think through what they might be.
- Questions for Reflection:
 - What are the disciples doing? What is Jesus doing? What is the question they ask Him? In what ways are we like the disciples most of the time?
 - Jesus calms the storm, obviously showing His power and authority. What do you make of the reaction of the disciples as to their understanding of Who Jesus is?

Huddle Meeting: (suggested time = 30 mins)

General Check-In (10 minutes)

Describe your sleep habits this week.

Describe your dietary habits this week.

Describe your exercise habits this week.

Describe your development in intellectual curiosity this week (keeping up with current events, artistic endeavors, learning new skills, hobbies, etc)

Emotional Check-In (10 minutes)

Using the SACHET wheel, describe how you're doing emotionally right now. You may want to write down some of these to pray for your huddle during the week.

Rhythms Check-In (10 minutes)

Describe your experience with the individual rhythms this week.

Describe your experience with the corporate rhythms this week.

How can the huddle encourage you this week in these areas? Or...

...How can you encourage the huddle this week in these areas?

Huddle Meeting: Discussion for Growth

10 Minutes:

What is something you feel God truly taught you this week?

20 Minutes (based on Mark 3 & 4):

Jesus did several healings and calmed the storm that highlight His authority. What thoughts come to mind when, as a disciple, you are to be under His authority? How does that “sit” with you?

When you think of the importance of family, how are you doing putting God first AND loving your family well?

Regardless of your faith level, if you were to make any changes in your life based on what we read this week, what would that look like?
